

Volunteers for Braille Work Center #160

One of Faith Lutheran's Mission Projects

Eleanor Griffin & Lil Breech are putting special paper between the plates.

Eleanor Griffin & Lil Breech continue to place the paper between the zink plates while Cathy Pratt (called a runner) runs the plates from Eleanor to Wayne Galler.

Wayne Galler & Don Weed feed braille plates through a press that embosses the dots on the paper.

Frank Rysan, Liz Coonter, Don Fowler, & Jim Tulke feed the press with paper filled plates.

Tom Martin, catcher for Wayne Galler who is pushing plates thru the press.

Linda Anderson is stripping the paper from the plates and Don Fowler is taking the blank paper that is numbered and giving it to Jum Tulke who puts it into the plates

Claude Griffin is punching the paper so that Sharon Martin can bind into a book.

Dale Bendixon is making packing for shipping while Caryl Galler is punching paper to be bound

Dr. LaDonna Rhodes is talking with Cathy Pratt and Sharon Martin as they check the quality of the books. Eleanor Griffin stands in the background.

Dr. LaDonna Rhodes, Kathy Pratt, & Sharon Martin are checking books for quality..

Tom Martin, Leader of Work Center 160 is talking with Donna & Don Weeds. Tom also serves as a member of the Board of Directors of the International Office of the Lutheran Braille Workers in Yucaipa, CA.
